It also aimed to provide participants with an understanding of research methodology and data analysis, with a focus on using JAMOVI software. The workshop was structured into five modules, delivered by experienced and knowledgeable faculty members.

On day one of the workshop, Professor Devender Sharma delivered a session on research methodology from a conceptual framework perspective. He talked about the meaning of research methodology, review of literature, and research design, providing the participants with an overview of the fundamental concepts of research methodology.

On day two, Dr. Devender Sharma provided a technical perspective on research methodology. He explained the procedure for research analysis, sources of data collection, and how to prepare research reports.

Day three of the workshop was focused on the concept of measurement and scales. This session was helpful for participants as it provided them with an understanding of how to measure and analyse data in research.

On day four, the participants were introduced to the Jamovi software, which is a user-friendly software for statistical analysis. Dr. Madhukar Dalvi taught the participants how to use the software in the research process and how to make hypotheses in research. This session was highly practical and provided participants with hands-on experience of using the software.

Finally, on day five of the workshop, various types of parametric and non-parametric tests and their uses in research were discussed.

Outcome: The participants gained a deeper understanding of research methodology, including the conceptual framework, review of literature, research design, and technical perspective.
