INCLUSION IN ADMISSION

Reserved seats are allocated to SC, ST, OBC, and special students to promote the cultural advancement of marginalized and disadvantaged communities. In addition, students can seek admission to the college through the Management and Community Quota, which ensures equal educational opportunities for individuals from diverse racial, cultural, social, and linguistic backgrounds. This inclusive approach fosters an environment where individuals from all communities can access education without facing any form of discrimination.

ADMINISTRATION

Democratic distribution of duties among staff members promotes a harmonious and supportive environment, where everyone's contributions are acknowledged and appreciated. By actively involving teachers in the decision-making process, their expertise and perspectives are valued, leading to a more inclusive and balanced allocation of duties.
