Students were also sensitized towards visualisation of scientific data, computing complex problems by developing a schemata for implementing it on spreadsheets on the fly. The resource persons were Prof. P.K.Ahluwalia. (Retd.) Prof. Physics, Himachal Pradesh University, Dr. Sarmistha Sahu (Retd.) Assoc. Professor, Department of Physics, Maharani Lakshmi Ammanni College for Women, Science Post, Bangalore and Dr. Sapna Sharma, Associate Professor, Department of Physics, St. Bede's College Shimla. The workshop aimed at enabling students to make use of spreadsheets as a means of representing scientific data and computing complex and to plot various types of graphs to display data and visualize the patterns.

Objectives:

- To introduce students to various spreadsheet functions, formulas, and features.
- To familiarize UG students with data analysis techniques, including sorting, filtering, and pivot tables, and demonstrate how spreadsheets can be used to visualize data through charts and graphs.
- To empower students with data-driven decision-making skills and the ability to communicate complex data effectively through visual representations.
- To equip students with essential computational skills that are applicable in a wide range of disciplines and professions.
- To develop practical applications of spreadsheets in real-world scenarios
- To develop problem-solving and critical thinking skills among UG students by engaging them in spreadsheet-based activities that require them to analyze, interpret, and manipulate data to arrive at solutions.
- To build students' confidence in using spreadsheet software as a powerful tool for mathematical and computational tasks.
- To empower students to use spreadsheets independently and confidently, thus enhancing their overall technical skills and preparing them for future academic and professional endeavours.

Day1:

On the first day of the workshop, the keynote speaker, Prof. P.K. Ahluwalia, delivered an enlightening talk entitled "Developing Mathematical and Computational Thinking of Science Students as per the New Education Policy." Prof. Ahluwalia began by discussing the importance of mathematical and computational thinking in the current education landscape. He highlighted how these skills are essential for students pursuing science subjects, as they form the backbone of many scientific disciplines. He also emphasized that with the recent changes in education policy, it is crucial to re-examine the ways in which we teach these skills to students. Then he shifted his talk on the topic Spreadsheet: Overview of a Killer Application.

He highlighted how spreadsheets is a fundamental tool in today's workplace, with applications ranging from budgeting and financial analysis to project management and data analysis and have evolved into sophisticated software packages that can handle complex calculations, data manipulation, and visualizations such as charts and graphs, which can be used to present data in a meaningful way.

Day 2:

On the second day of the workshop, Prof. P.K. Ahluwalia delivered a talk titled "Beyond a Simple Worksheet: Macros, User-Defined Functions, and Subroutines". He highlighted the various powerful tools available in Microsoft Excel that can help automate and streamline workflows beyond the basic functions of a worksheet. By using these tools, productivity can be increased, and time can be saved. During the talk, Prof. Ahluwalia demonstrated how to create a macro using the Macro Recorder tool in Excel. This tool records the actions performed and generates a Visual Basic for Applications (VBA) code that can be replayed later. The code can also be edited to customize the macro to suit specific needs. Additionally, he explained the process of creating a Subroutine by writing VBA code. This enables users to create more complex and customized functions to perform specific tasks.

"An Undergraduate Computational Physics Course: Implementation Using Spreadsheets."

Day3:

Dr. Sapna Sharma discussed the implementation of an undergraduate computational physics course using spreadsheets. She emphasized the advantages of using spreadsheets in teaching fundamental concepts of computational physics, such as ease of use, versatility, and a familiar interface. By taking a hands-on approach to learning, students can gain a better understanding of the underlying physics and the practical application of numerical methods and data analysis. The topics discussed were:

- Spreadsheet & its Features
- Data entry into a spreadsheet.
- Performing basic mathematical tasks in a spreadsheet.
- Insert charts/graphs in a spreadsheet.
- Exercises in spreadsheet.

Day 4:

On Day 4, Dr. Sapna Sharma gave a presentation on the importance of error analysis in laboratory work and how spreadsheets can facilitate this task. The topic was "Spreadsheet as a tool Kit for Science Laboratories: Data Handling and Error Analysis". During her talk, Dr. Sharma covered a range of topics related to error analysis, including types of errors, ways of expressing errors, propagation of errors, absolute and fractional uncertainties, and combining errors in formulas. She also provided practical examples of how spreadsheets can be used to perform error analysis, such as assigning values to variables and evaluating the uncertainty of results.

Day 5

On the fifth day of the event, Dr. Sarmishtha Sahu gave a presentation on the topic "Trouble Shooter of Physics: Classical and Quantum Oscillator". During her talk, she emphasized the versatility of spreadsheets as a tool for modeling, analyzing, and visualizing Classical and Quantum Oscillator systems. By utilizing spreadsheets, researchers and professionals in the field can enhance their understanding of these systems and make more precise predictions regarding their behavior. Dr. Sahu's talk shed light on the potential of utilizing spreadsheets in Physics research and provided insights into how this tool can aid in problem-solving.

Day 6

On the sixth day of the event, Dr. Sarmishtha Sahu presented an intriguing topic titled "Hitting the Bull's Eye: Let's Calculate Pi ( $\pi$ ) Using a Monte Carlo Approach". In her presentation, she discussed a unique and engaging method of calculating the value of Pi ( $\pi$ ) using statistical analysis through random sampling, also known as the Monte Carlo approach. She provided step-by-step instructions on how to use random sampling to estimate the value of Pi ( $\pi$ ) through a Monte Carlo approach in a spreadsheet. Additionally, Dr. Sahu emphasized that the accuracy of the estimate of Pi ( $\pi$ ) increases with the number of random points used in the calculation. Hence, individuals can achieve a more precise value of Pi ( $\pi$ ) by incorporating a greater number of points in their statistical analysis. Overall, Dr. Sahu's presentation provided a unique and interactive approach to learning about the value of Pi ( $\pi$ ) through statistical analysis.

DIGITIZATION DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC: W.R.T. CYBERSECURITY

The Department of Computer Science conducted a webinar titled "Digitization during Covid-19 Pandemic: w.r.t. Cybersecurity" on 30 June 2021 for BCA, B.Sc., B.A., BBA, and M.Com students using the MS-Teams platform.

Dr. Naveen Kumar, Assistant Professor at the Department of Computer Science, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, was the resource person for the webinar.

Objectives:

1. Understanding the Significance of Digitization for Cybersecurity During the Covid-19 Pandemic
2. Acquiring Cybersecurity Industry Expertise and Skills
3. Comprehending Cyber Frauds and Safeguarding Data

The session highlighted the significance of digitization in the context of cybersecurity during the Covid-19 pandemic. Dr. Naveen informed how the Covid-19 pandemic has led to an exponential increase in the use of digital technology, resulting in a surge in digital transactions, remote work, and virtual communication. He explained how pandemic has created new opportunities for cybercriminals and how they carry out cyberattacks. He stressed that robust cybersecurity protocols and standards can help prevent unauthorized access to sensitive information.

Outcomes:

- The students acquired in-depth knowledge and expertise in the cybersecurity industry.
- The students understood effective strategies for securing employment in the cybersecurity field.
- The students gained practical, hands-on experience instead of relying solely on theoretical concepts.

LECTURE ON THE USE OF "TRACKER SOFTWARE"

Eminent physicist Prof. OSKS Sastri, from the School of Physical & Material Science, Central University of Himachal Pradesh delivered a talk on the use of "tracker software" on October 1, 2021.

Objectives: Objectives of organizing this lecture on use of tracker software were to:

- Enhance conceptual understanding.
- Visualize and analyse real-world motion and experiment with various parameters, enabling them to grasp fundamental concepts more effectively.
- Promote inquiry-based learning by empowering students to investigate and explore physical phenomena on their own.
- Develop essential data analysis skills to tackle real-world physics problems using motion analysis.
- Allow students to learn at their own pace.

Prof. Sastri taught the students how to take a video of a moving object and track it using tracker software and check the required parameters. Around 75 physics students at the college and faculty members attended the event.

Outcomes: The use of tracker software in physics offers a range of benefits, including improved conceptual understanding, enhanced data analysis skills, active learning experiences, and the development of scientific and technological competencies.

WORKSHOP ON "RESEARCH METHODOLOGY AND DATA ANALYSIS USING JAMOVI SOFTWARE"

The Department of Commerce & Management at St. Bede's College, Shimla, organized an online one-week workshop on "Research Methodology and Data Analysis Using JAMOVI Software" starting from October 25, 2021, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC).

Objective: The workshop aimed to raise awareness about research methodology and data analysis using Jamovi software. It also aimed to provide participants with an understanding of research methodology and data analysis, with a focus on using JAMOVI software. The workshop was structured into five modules, delivered by experienced and knowledgeable faculty members.

On day one of the workshop, Professor Devender Sharma delivered a session on research methodology from a conceptual framework perspective. He talked about the meaning of research methodology, review of literature, and research design, providing the participants with an overview of the fundamental concepts of research methodology.

On day two, Dr. Devender Sharma provided a technical perspective on research methodology. He explained the procedure for research analysis, sources of data collection, and how to prepare research reports.

Day three of the workshop was focused on the concept of measurement and scales. Dr. Madhukar Dalvi discussed the basics of inferential and descriptive statistics and the types of scales, like Likert, ordinal, etc., used in research. This session was helpful for participants as it provided them with an understanding of how to measure and analyse data in research.

On day four, the participants were introduced to the Jamovi software, which is a user-friendly software for statistical analysis. Dr. Madhukar Dalvi taught the participants how to use the software in the research process and how to make hypotheses in research. This session was highly practical and provided participants with hands-on experience of using the software.

Finally, on day five of the workshop, various types of parametric and non-parametric tests and their uses in research were discussed.

Outcome: The participants gained a deeper understanding of research methodology, including the conceptual framework, review of literature, research design, and technical perspective.
