- Assigning duties for the same

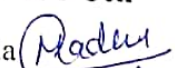

Discussion and Decisions:

A meeting of the members of the Equal Opportunity Cell was convened by the Chairperson Dr. Gitanjali Mahendra on 28 November, 2025. She informed the members that an Orientation Program must be organized to make the students aware about the cell. The students must be informed about the procedure of filing a complaint for prevention and redressal of any form of discrimination based on religion, race, caste, sex or place of birth. It was decided that Advocate Yogita Sharma, member H.P. State Consumer Commission would be the resource person she will be requested to speak on the topic "An Awareness Session on Intersectionality of Caste and Gender Discrimination and its Legal Implications". The members took the responsibility to organize this talk for the benefit of the students. The principal Dr. (Sr.) Rosily T.L. was informed about the decision taken by the members.
