

St. Bede's College is delighted to partner with SDPI through a newly executed MoU to offer Tally certification course. This initiative brings practical digital accounting training directly to our campus to boost student career prospects.